

Navajo Nation Monsoon 2026

ICS Form 213 Process

Community members are to work with their local chapter to request assistance through the ICS Form 213. This form is used to transmit and document messages to incident personnel. The form may be downloaded from the FEMA website or the Navajo Department of Emergency Management website.

- 1 Concisely inform the chapter of your need(s) and/or request. The chapter will fill out the ICS Form 213 on your behalf.
- 2 The chapter emails the form to EOC_planning@navajo-nsn.gov
- 3 The Form 213 is logged, reviewed, and distributed to the appropriate EOC section.
- 4 213 request/info is received & a response/action is provided by appropriate EOC section
- 5 The appropriate EOC section completes the form and returns to the Planning Section for documentation.
- 6 The Planning Section will respond to the sender of the form, and thereafter the Chapter shall provide the response/resources to the requesting party.

Navajo Nation Divisions, Departments, and Programs may also fill out the ICS Form 213 for weather-related issues and/or requests that need to be addressed and email directly to the EOC Planning section.

ICS FORM 213 PROCESS FOR CHAPTERS

The Emergency Operations Center (EOC) is providing information on the process for the public to request assistance for weather-related issues.

Community members are to work with their local chapter to request assistance through the ICS Form 213. This form is used to transmit and document messages to incident personnel.

For community members, inform the chapter of your need(s) and/or request. Please be clear and concise and include your contact information so that a response can be provided.

The chapter will fill out the ICS Form 213 on your behalf.

The form may be downloaded from the FEMA website (ICS 213 Form) or the Navajo Department of Emergency Management website at <https://ndem.navajo-nsn.gov/nnmonsoon2026>.

The ICS Form 213 may be emailed to eoc_planning@navajo-nsn.gov by the chapter. The form will be logged, reviewed, and distributed to the appropriate EOC section.

The appropriate EOC section will then complete the form and return to the Planning Section for documentation. The Planning Section will respond to the sender of the form, and thereafter the Chapter shall provide the response/resources to the requesting party.

Navajo Nation Divisions, Departments, and Programs may also fill out the ICS Form 213 for weather-related issues and/or requests that need to be addressed and email directly to the EOC Planning section.
